MISS COCOPAH TRIBE 2014-2016 CANDIDATES

The Crowning of Miss Cocopah Tribe 2014-2016

September 25, 2014 • Cocopah RV & Golf Resort Ballroom • 6:00 p.m.
Light refreshments will be served.

MEET THE CANDIDATES:

Samantha Twist

My name is Samantha Jane Twist and I am currently running for Miss Cocopah Tribe. I was born in Yuma, Arizona and have recently turned 18 years old. My parents are John Harvey and Wesla Twist. My father does not have native blood but my mother Wesla was born and raised on the reservation as a proud member of the Tribe. My maternal grandparents are Wanda Twist and Wesley Gutierrez. My paternal grandparents are Carolyn and Patrick Harvey. I have one older sister but I am an older sister as well to many younger siblings where I hope to be a positive role model for them. I lived on the West Cocopah Reservation for 15 years but now reside in Yuma.

I am a 2014 high school honors graduate from Antelope Union High School. Throughout high school I have been involved in various clubs and sports including basketball, softball, drama and student council. Aside from sports I find enjoyment in art, long boarding and reading sci-fi novels. I plan to attend AWC this fall to start my education and pursue further to NAU to study Sports Medicine.

Santana Salazar

My name is Santana Marie Salazar. I am 17 years old, I'm Cocopah and Hispanic from Somerton, Arizona. I reside on the West Cocopah Reservation. My parents are Manuel Salazar Jr. and the late Marcella Hayes. My maternal grandparents are Mary Hayes and the late Billy White. My paternal grandparents are Manuel Salazar Sr. and the late Emma Paz.

I'm currently running for Miss Cocopah because I believe that I can be a good role model to our Cocopah youth and also represent the Cocopah Tribe proudly.

My hobbies are traveling to different powwows and gatherings- participating in Bird Dances, playing Peon, meeting new people, making new friends and having the pleasure to attend all native events.

My interest is in Law Enforcement. I participated in the Cocopah Explorers Program for two years and graduated.

My short term goal is to graduate from High School. My long term goal is to attend college and earn my degree in Law Enforcement.

Kayla Burney

My name is Kayla Danielle Burney. I'm 16 years old; I'm Cocopah, African American and Hispanic. I live on the West Cocopah Reservation.

I'm the proud daughter of the late Marcella Hayes and the late Michael Burney. My grandparents are Mary Hayes and the late Billy White.

My interests are playing volleyball with friends and family. I love music, I love singing songs with my nephew. My most passionate interests are bird dancing. When I bird dance I feel like I could be me and feel free to express my culture to anybody. I would like to teach the younger girls in my Tribe how to bird dance as well.

My goals for my future are to make better choices along the way. Prove to everybody that I can change my ways and become the better person they want me to be. My short term goal is to graduate from High School. My long term goal is to go to college and be a successful young woman in the future.

We the Staff at the Community Center want to send out a "Thank you very much!" to all the different programs and volunteers for helping and assisting us in our Back To School Extravaganza this year.

The kids were extremely happy with the FREE backpacks that were handed out to the first 50 who attended this extravaganza, and especially excited about the skit and free information that was given them that afternoon. We thank you for your time and hard work. This event truly was a success, see you next year.

REIGNING MISS COCOPAH HEADING FOR STATE PAGEANT

Shelyne Twist, the reigning Miss Cocopah, is in the running for the coveted title of Miss Indian Arizona. If she wins, Ms. Twist will be the first Miss Cocopah in the organization's 53-year history to attain this honor.

"Of course I'm excited. I have such a love for representing my tribe, it will be a great experience and a great honor," Twist said.

The 23-year-old reigning Miss Cocopah is among seven other contestants from five other Arizona tribes who are competing for the state title. The other contestants are from the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community, the Gila River Indian Community, the San Carlos Apache Tribe, the Tohono O'odham Nation, the White Mountain Apache Tribe and the Navajo Nation.

Twist was crowned Miss Cocopah in 2012. She is currently pursuing a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Music Performance through the University of Arizona in Tucson. She was born on the Cocopah reservation and lived there until she was 16 years old. She graduated from Yuma High School in 2009 where she made the National Honor Roll.

During her two-year term as Miss Cocopah, Twist has represented the Tribe at numerous Native American events throughout Arizona, California, and New Mexico. In addition, she has participated in numerous community events including the Cocopah Cultural Celebration, the Annual Yuma Jaycees Rodeo Parade, and the Veterans Day parade.

"My two main goals for the past two years are simply representing the tribe and being a role model. Whether that's to other tribes or non-natives, I try my best to represent the tribe with honor, dignity, and respect," Twist said.

Twist has also served as a guest speaker at area schools and has participated in fund raising activities.

Most recently, she and the three Miss Cocopah 2014 candidates participated in the annual Stuff the Bus campaign, donating 10 complete backpacks for needy school children.

The 53rd Annual Miss Indian Arizona Pageant will be held on October 11 in Chandler, Arizona.

Good Luck Shelyne!
